In partnership with

LONDON
METROPOLITAN UNIVERSITY

"Opened my mind to the world of uni and how they can support me"

WHERE: The event will be held at the London Metropolitan University, AND online where we will be live streaming the workshop.

WHEN: Tuesday 26th October (during half-term), 11:00am-4:00pm.

WHO: Anyone with arthritis or a similar condition, age 15-25 based in the UK and is considering university (family member's are welcome too).

It will be a relaxed and informative session, where you will have the opportunity to:

- discuss making decisions about university, what to study and where.
- hear current students first hand experience of uni and support they receive.
- explore the different options to best support your health condition.
- hear about the practical and financial help that universities can offer you.
